SHORT TITLE	CASE NUMBER
-------------	-------------

7. Applicant understands and agrees that:
- a. Every continuance requires a written application and a court order, including stipulations.
 - b. Continuances do not extend the statutory or prior court ordered briefing schedule absent a court order.
 - c. The statutory continuance fee must be paid with each continuance application.
 - d. The first two applications may be submitted through the clerk.
 - e. Submission through the clerk is not an automatic grant of a continuance.
 - f. If the continuance is denied, the applicant will be notified by the clerk.
 - g. A denial of the first or second application, or a third or subsequent application may be submitted by ex parte application or in court on the day of the hearing.
 - h. If the continuance is granted and the applicant has not otherwise received notice of the order, the applicant may call the clerk the day before the scheduled hearing date to confirm the continuance and the new hearing date.
 - i. If the continuance is granted, the applicant must immediately notify all parties that the scheduled hearing date has changed and serve this application and order forthwith along with the original RFO and supporting documents, if not previously served.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
