Reference Materials— Civil Harassment Restraining Orders

The screenshot shows the website for the Superior Court of California, County of San Diego. The page is titled "Civil Harassment Restraining Orders". The navigation menu includes "Divisions", "General Info", and "Online Services". A search bar is located in the top right corner. A banner at the top of the page reads: "JURORS – to reschedule your jury service without coming to court, click here." The main content area features a sidebar with a list of categories: ADR (Alternatives to Trial), Calendar, Civil E-Filing, Civil Hearings, Civil Imaging, Construction Defect Cases, Forms, Frequently Asked Questions, Harassment Restraining Orders, JCCP Cases, and Landlord/Tenant. The main content area contains several buttons: "View a Case File", "Calendar", "Tentative Rulings", "Forms", "FAQ", and "Reserve a Civil Motion Date". A prominent red warning box states: "IMPORTANT: If you are in danger now and need help, call 911." Below this, there are quick links for "What is a Civil Harassment Restraining Order?", "What is an Elder/Dependent Abuse Restraining Order?", and "What is a Gun Violence Restraining Order?". A "Help" button is located in the bottom right corner.
